The parties appeared for a status conference on August 27, 2010. The matter was continued to September 3, 2010 for detention hearing. The government is in the process of producing discovery, subject to a protective order. Defense counsel will require time to review the discovery. Based upon the representation of counsel and for good cause shown, the Court finds that failing to exclude the time between August 27, 2010 and September 3, 2010 would unreasonably deny the government and the defense the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv). The Court further finds that the ends of justice served by excluding the time between August 27, 2010 and September 3, 2010 from computation under the Speedy Trial Act outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Therefore, it is hereby ordered that the
